"The Constitution as it Was."

We find nowhere more sensible articles or more uncompromising in opposition to the traitors and their Northern sympathizers than in Harper's Weekly, which, in the beginning of this war, was positively proslavery. In the last number we find the following vigorous reply to the constant yelping of Northern defenders of slavery:

Whenever vigorous military measures are proposed there is a cry from certain people and papers that the war is for the maintenance of the Constitution and the Union as it was. Certainly it is. But what then? What is the Union as it was? It is the Union of the people living in thirty-four States under one supreme national government, which by the Constitution as it is empowered to return obedience to its authority from every citizen in the land, by military force if necessary.

That is what the government is doing. This war is the effort of the government to reduce armed rebels to its authority. By the Constitution the President is made Commander-in-Chief, and to use the military power is counted by hundreds of thousands, and confronted by hundreds of armed men, when bloody battles are fought, cities besieged, and stern blockade established, there is war between the government and insurgents, who are at once traitors and enemies, and who are to be subdued by every means known to war.

When the government acts under the clause of the Constitution which authorizes the military suppression of the rebellion, and all constitutional rights inconsistent with a state of war are suspended, for constitutional immunity against the taking of his life by the government, except after due process of law, meaning indictment, trial, etc. But the government took the life of Sidney Johnston, at Shiloh, without any indictment or trial whatever. Was it an unconstitutional act? Not at all. It was just as constitutional as the hanging of Gordon. For the constitution as it is authorizes the use of military measures, after due warning, as much as it guarantees individual life and liberty, and when the Union as it was is restored, every citizen who has lost his life by military necessity will enjoy all the civil guarantees for it.

And so whatever else may fall within the scope of military necessity, by the late law passed in the House, our armies are to be fed at the expense of the rebels. Every citizen has a right to own property, but the grain and cattle of every rebel will be promptly seized and appropriated to the use of the Government wherever the army needs it. Does that interfere with the Union as it was? No; it is simply an integral part of the necessary military operations to restore the Union as it was. In like manner, the slaves of every rebel who have been used against the Government are liberated. Does that interfere with the Union as it was? Not at all. It is only part of the constitutional means to restore the Union as it was.

By-and-by it may become clearly necessary to summon all loyal people to the defense of the Government, and to that end the slaves may be freed. Will that interfere with the Union as it was? Not at all; it will be only another blow which may be constitutionally struck at the rebellion. It is true that in the Union as it was there were slaves lawfully held in many States. So there were in the District of Columbia. But when the war is over, if it ends to-morrow, there will be no slaves held there. Must the District slave law be re-enacted, lest otherwise we should not have the Union as it was? If hereafter the American Government clearly fulfills the purposes for which it was expressly created, and every man subject to that Government enjoys the full liberty which the Declaration of Independence declares to be given him by God, upon the continent from the Atlantic to the Pacific, the crack of the slave whip is heard no more, and universal peace and prosperity bloom from justice like red and white roses from these bright trees of June, will it be the wreck and chaos of the nation?

No, and forever no! It will be the Union as it was in the very intent and words of the fathers; the Union as it was meant to be, and the Union by God's blessing as the children of those fathers mean it shall be.

Letter from James River

The following letter (though of an old date) from Robert Clarke, of Co. H, 1st Cavalry Regiment, formerly stationed at this Military District, possesses some interest. It was addressed to Wm. H. Trant, at Fort Vancouver:

CAMP ON HARRISON'S LANDING,
James River, July 14, 1862.

FRIEND: We have been in the saddle night and day, most of the time, for the last three weeks. We had not unsaddled our horses for nine days when we reached James river. Our regiment is so reduced that we cannot muster but one hundred and fourteen men for duty. We have been in almost every skirmish since the evacuation of Yorktown. "H" company has been very fortunate. We have had but few killed as yet, though most of the boys have had horses wounded or killed under them.

At the battle of Williamsburg, the 4th Virginia Cavalry, Capt. Reno (formerly of "F" Co.) commanding, undertook to charge Light Co. 5d Artillery, which our regiment was supporting, when one squadron of ours rode completely over them. Sam Caskey, of "F" Co., captured their colors, for which he was complimented by Gen. McClellan, and appointed Sergeant by his company commander. Gen. McClellan also pronounced the 1st the most efficient cavalry regiment in the army.

All the regular infantry and the 5th New York Zouaves are in one division. They were engaged for the first time at Gaines' Hill, and although the papers say not a word in their praise, to them and the 1st and 5th cavalry are we indebted for preventing our forces from being totally routed. Our regiment was the last in the field, saving over sixty pieces of artillery, that were left without protection. Most of them belonged to the 5d artillery, each company of that regiment being now a Light Battery. Their men stood at their guns until nearly all were killed or wounded. Towards the close of the battle, some of the pieces were worked by two men. I was ordered to assist Capt. Reno in commanding his squadron, and after the battle was appointed Color Sergeant.

"H" company has been Gen. McClellan's body guard since the battle; but must shortly be relieved, as our horses are used up. The boys are all anxious to return to Oregon—being as lonesome here as in the Snake country. We have to pay six times the Oregon prices for everything we purchase.

ROBERT CLARKE,
Co. H, 1st U. S. Cavalry,
Stoneman's Div'n, Army of the Potomac.

We notice that the New Jersey Newark Mercury has a paragraph in relation to Robert Clarke, which does him great credit. It says:

"Robert Clarke, a Newarker, attached to the 1st Cavalry Regiment, during a charge upon rebel cavalry, captured with his own hand, Thomas Hutchinson, Colonel of the 23d Georgia Regiment. General McClellan did Clarke the honor to take him by the hand and thank him for his gallant act. Clarke has always been noted for his coolness and bravery. For this act he was appointed Color Sergeant."

OFFICIAL PAPER OF THE CITY.

No flag but the Old Flag—the Red, White and Blue,
With the stars o' a Union unbroken and true!
Arise and defend it ye sons of the brave,
Whose blood bought the banner your valor must save.

MONDAY MORNING, SEPT. 8, 1862.

The Sanitary Commission.—The object of this Association can be expressed in a few words: its head men are among the most patriotic and philanthropic citizens of the country; their object is to collect means from all portions of the country, and apply it to alleviate the distresses of our sick and wounded soldiers. Their chief office is at Washington. The demands upon them for every article which can be used in the hospital and elsewhere, for the suffering soldiers use, are more than they can meet. They call upon our citizens—who are away from the fields of war, who are not seriously affected by this war—to come to the rescue.

We say, let us obey this call. He who can give liberally, let him do so; he who can give less, let him not hold back; he who can give but his mite, let him not withhold that which would save one pang to the patriotic soldier's heart.

This is the first opportunity we have had to show our sympathies with the Government in its efforts to save the country and the soldiers who are baring their breasts to the bayonets and deadly missiles of traitors!

Fellow citizens! The voices of our brothers' blood cry to us from the ground—"Send us relief!" Aye, aye, you shall have it now, and again, if need be, from the patriotic and deeply-sympathizing people of Oregon.

From Victoria and British Columbia.—We have files of the Victoria papers including August 27th. We see no evidence that mining has been very successful in British Columbia the present season. On the 23d the steamer Enterprise arrived from New Westminster with $20,000, and it was supposed that there was $8,000 in the hands of passengers. The high price of flour and other provisions in the upper mines seems to prevent their being worked. $1 30 was paid for flour; and miners cannot work $6 and $8 claims when they are compelled to purchase food at such prices. Measures have been taken to open roads to the mines, so as to send provisions to them at cheaper rates.

The Stickeen river excitement has not ceased altogether. Most of the persons and goods sent there early in the season, have been brought back to Victoria. Those persons who remain say that there is gold high up on the river, and that they will remain there through the winter. The place where the miners are, is so far North that they have daylight the whole twenty-four hours, in June, but in December and part of January the days are but six hours long. The Indians say the winters are mild. They may be to them.

The screw steamer Robert Powe was to sail from London in August, with a second installment of females for the Victoria market.

The steamer Labouchere was seized by some 300 Indians, 150 miles North of Stickeen river, some time ago. After being in their possession some 24 hours, the crew again had her under their control. At the last dates, she was on the way to Victoria.

The trade with San Francisco is increasing. The increase for the first six months of this year over the same months in 1861, is $514,000.

Shot by Indians.—We are informed by Mr. Jacob Westenfelter, who has just returned from the mines, that while he and eleven others were prospecting between the Payette and Boise rivers, on their way to the South Fork of Salmon, they were attacked by Indians, and one of the party, George Grimes, was shot through the heart, and almost instantly killed. The Indians fled immediately. They buried their comrade in a hole where they had just been prospecting, after which they traveled all night and reached the mines without further trouble. Mr. Grimes was from this valley, and leaves a wife and child at Milwaukie.

State Legislature.—The Legislature convenes to-day. We have engaged a regular correspondent, who will keep our readers posted in the doings of that body. Mr. U. E. Hicks, our "local," has also gone to the Capital, and will also write for the paper.

Overstocked.—We had a call on Saturday from our old friend, Dick Irwin, of Benton county. During the summer he took a large band of cattle to the Powder river mines, but on reaching the mines found the market overstocked—cattle bringing less there than here. He brought the drove back to this valley.

Personal.—Mr. John M. Murphy, editor of the Washington Standard, W. T., has been sojourning in our city the past few days. Coast life, clam-bakes, &c., seems to agree with his system amazingly.

A Comparison.—By the last trip of the Oregon to San Francisco, $25,000 in dust was taken from Victoria, and $198,425 from Portland!

Mr. E. L. Applegate is authorized to receive subscriptions and collect dues for the Daily and Weekly Oregonian at Salem.

No News.—No telegraphic dispatches were received last night.

The News.

On the 4th and 5th of July, it is alleged, a conference of the rebel Generals was held at Richmond. The results of their deliberations are thus reported: "Lee and Beauregard advised the invasion of the North at three points, namely—from Cumberland or Williamsport into Pennsylvania; from Louisville and Cincinnati into Indiana and Ohio, and from Paducah and Cairo into Illinois. It is alleged that the following plan of operations for the remainder of the summer campaign was agreed upon: First. The immediate obstruction of the James river so as to make it impossible for McClellan to use it as a means of communication with the Government, and for the transportation of reinforcements and army supplies. Second. The occupation of Williamsburg, Yorktown and the entire peninsula. Third. The recovery of the whole of the Territory of Virginia, and the suppression of the Baltimore and Ohio railroad. Fourth—The recovery of New Orleans, Memphis and the Mississippi river, and the expulsion of the Federal troops from Tennessee and Kentucky. When these objects had been accomplished, the Lee and Beauregard plan was proposed. Fifth. To make the Potomac and Ohio rivers at once their base of operations and frontier line, and to transfer the seat of war from Virginia to Maryland. Sixth. To hurl upon Washington from Richmond a column of two hundred thousand troops. By the capture of that city, the liberation of Baltimore, and the invasion of the North at the three points named above, becoming in turn the invaders, they hope to make it necessary for us to keep at home, for the defense of our cities, fully five hundred thousand troops."

The offensive movements of Lee in Virginia, and Kirby Smith in Kentucky, indicate that the rebels may have really adopted this threatening programme, and commenced its execution during the month of August. At the time of the adoption of this plan, it must be confessed that the national forces were not so distributed as to offer a formidable resistance. It seemed to be an easy achievement to overwhelm the comparatively small army north of Richmond and march on Maryland. In the West, there was no obstacle of consequence, to the rapid march of a large army through Eastern Kentucky to the Ohio. The preparations since made to receive the enemy and defeat the consummation of their hopes, are probably due to the wise and vigorous action of Gen. Halleck. With only three corps, Pope succeeded in holding the combined armies of Lee and Jackson in check upon the Rappahannock until the arrival of McClellan's forces and new levies enabled him to confront the enemy with an army of adequate strength.

But this concentration was not effected a moment too soon; for by a bold and rapid movement Lee and Jackson passed the Rappahannock near the Blue Ridge, made a descent on Manassas, capturing and destroying Government stores of much value, and threatened Washington and Western Maryland. But here their advance was checked. The quick and skillful dispositions of Pope forced Lee to draw in his advance divisions and meet the attack of the national army on the old field of Bull Run. The battle began at daybreak on the morning of Friday, August 29th, and raged until after nightfall with unabated fury, the enemy fighting strictly on the defensive, but stubbornly contesting the ground. At the close of this bloody day, the rebels had been forced back at all points, and Pope's army occupied the field. On the next morning, Saturday, August 30th, it was discovered that the enemy were falling back on Bull Run mountains, and Pope promptly moved forward to pursue and attack. He had been reinforced by Fitz John Porter's veteran corps. We have no intelligence of the result of this day's struggle. The slaughter is said to have been appalling, but Union men at Washington, at the latest advices, were sanguine of a great success. McClellan is in command of a heavy reserve at the National Capital and Alexandria. If all goes well, this is likely to be the decisive battle of the war.—Sac. Union.

A. HOLBROOK.

John Day Mines.—Mr. Brents, the expressman, arrived at the Dalles, yesterday. He reports that improvements of every kind were in brisk and steady progress. Several water ditches had been completed, furnishing water for a number of claims that are paying well. One on the west side of Canyon Creek, supplies water for the bank, fully half a mile of which is yielding from $6 to $20 per day to the hand. About twenty hewn log buildings are in the course of erection. Supplies are more plentiful and not quite so dear, yet packers need have no fear of overstocking the market. The general conviction now obtains that the mines are both rich and extensive, the best evidence of which is that the miners, with scarce an exception, have well filled purses, or rather as some of the miners express it, the "chipsas." One of these "chipsas," in the possession of Mr. C. R. Adams, weighs upwards of $40; another taken out by Mr. Robert Miller, weighs $22 80, besides several others of the same kind. Of those who have their claims opened, we may mention Messrs. Buckston & Co., on Dutch Flat, who, on the 29th ult., took out six ounces, and on the 30th, seven ounces—three men working with sluices. Robinson, Rumsay & Co., on "Hog Point," haul their dirt some 200 yards, and averaged until the last week, from $400 to $500 per week—six men working. A man understood to be named W. H. Toomer, has run a tunnel some 50 feet into the hill, half a mile below Canyon Creek, on the west side, and has obtained prospects which warrant him in the belief that the hill will pay well for tunneling. Another gentleman in the same neighborhood, has put in a tunnel 45 feet, and obtained 75 cents to the pan. The party that started from Eugene, about the 8th ult., to explore an express route from that point to the John Day mines, arrived on the 31st. They think that the distance does not greatly exceed that between the Dalles and the mines. It is their opinion, however, that it will be impracticable to put an express on the line this season.—Mountaineer, Sept. 6th.

Overland Mail Communication.—The Bulletin observes that although the Postal Department has ordered that no more letters be sent by Overland Mail, on account of anticipated Indian disturbances, the stages continue to run daily as heretofore, promising to make the trip from San Francisco in about twenty days.

There are 411 females in the United States holding commissions as Postmasters.

☞ Coughs. The sudden changes of our climate are sources of Pulmonary, Bronchial, and Asthmatic Affections. Experience having proved that simple remedies often act speedily and certainly when taken in the early stages of the disease, recourse should at once be had to "Brown's Bronchial Troches," or Lozenges, let the Cold, Cough, or Irritation of the Throat be ever so slight, as by this precaution a more serious attack may be effectually warded off. Public Speakers and Singers will find them effectual for clearing and strengthening the voice. See advertisement.

☞ The attention of the community is respectfully solicited to the New Goods arrived by the last steamer, embracing a full line of Ladies' Silk Mantillas, French Bonnets, Florals, new style Hats, Challis, Poplins, and DeLaines, together with a full assortment of Gents New Style Cassimere suits, Fancy Sacks, Broadway styles of Business Suits, and the very latest fashion of Parisian and New York Fancy Summer Panama Braid and Light Cassimere Hats. Likewise the highest bid on the late occasion was seven hundred dollars, made by Lewis Gill, consequently that bid will form the basis from which to start on the coming day and hour of sale. Likewise, any person wishing information as to the property can receive it by applying at the Household Furniture Manufactory of Horatio Cooke & Co., corner of Alder and Second streets, Portland. Likewise, any person or persons wishing the property, and being so diffident as not to endure the public gaze, can leave their notification with me and their business will be attended to. The property consists of about 250 acres of land about one and a half miles of Portland.

TAYLOR'S HOTEL,
CORNER OF MORRISON AND FIRST STREETS,
PORTLAND, OREGON,

TAYLOR & SMITH .... Proprietors.

The undersigned, having assumed the control of the above named establishment, beg to inform their former friends and patrons and the public generally, that they are now prepared to accommodate all who may favor them with their custom, in a style not to be surpassed in the city. They are determined that

NO MEANS SHALL BE SPARED

To make "Taylor's Hotel" equal if not superior in style of accommodations to any other House in Portland. All they ask is for the public to give them a trial, and they promise that none shall go away dissatisfied.

CITY.

The MORNING OREGONIAN has a larger SUBSCRIPTION LIST than any other Daily published in this City.

THE DAILY OREGONIAN may be had at the Franklin Book Store, and at Charles Barrett's, Front street.

LECTURE.—Hon. A Holbrook will deliver a lecture in the M. E. Church on Tuesday evening next for the benefit of the U. S. Sanitary Commission. This is a worthy and humane object, and our citizens will not fail to turn out in large numbers. We should not forget that, though far away from the scenes of blood and strife—while our brothers and [illegible] are reddening the soil with their life's blood for the defence of our country—we can render assistance and relief to their suffering, the sick and wounded soldiers. Do not forget, Tuesday evening.

BENEFIT OF MISS LOTTA.—This favorite actress takes a benefit to night at the [illegible] Theatre. This simple announcement is sufficient to draw an overflowing house. She deserves it. Give her a bumper.

[illegible] Joseph Graham, who was awaiting trial in the county jail for robbing a [illegible] Fashion saloon some time since, made his escape yesterday morning by sawing [illegible] the grating of his cell. A reward of [illegible] is offered for his apprehension.

[illegible] ACCIDENT.—Mrs. H. Cook, of this city, while engaged in her household duties Tuesday afternoon last, suddenly slipped and fell to the floor, badly fracturing a lower [illegible].

NEW ADVERTISEMENTS.—We call the attention of our readers to the new advertisements this morning's per [illegible] POISON.—A gentleman was induced [illegible] evening to enter one of the many [illegible] of this place and take a drink of [illegible] kept at the bar. There was nothing [illegible] in this, as hundreds do so daily, [illegible] the taking of the drink by this gentleman felt a peculiar nauseating, burning [illegible] in his stomach, and soon thereafter [illegible] violently "heaving up Jonah." He [illegible] he verily believes part of his boot [illegible] up, considerably stained and fast [illegible] from the effect of the rank poison [illegible] in the villainous stuff. He [illegible] made a narrow escape, and if there [illegible] Temperance Society in Portland would [illegible] take the "Pledge."

[illegible] The splendid clipper bark Samuel [illegible], Capt. Jos. Williams, will leave this [illegible] Tuesday morning next, direct for San [illegible]. The accommodations for passengers [illegible] are fine, and those who [illegible] below would find the trip with [illegible] Williams who is widely known for his [illegible] and kind treatment to all under his [illegible] to be a pleasant one.

SCHOOL TAX.—At the School Meeting, on [illegible] evening last, it was resolved that a [illegible] thousand dollars should be levied [illegible] District No. 1, for educational purposes. Children should be educated, cost [illegible], and of course this tax is nothing [illegible] right and just.

[illegible] LEWISTON.—Mr. Sammist, Photo[illegible] Ambrotype Artist, presented us [illegible] with a very fine photographic view [illegible] and the junction of Clearwater [illegible] rivers. The view is very well executed, covers the whole town site as seen [illegible] hills on the North side.

[illegible] VANCOUVER.—This favorite little [illegible] has just come off the docks where she [illegible] a thorough repair, in fact she [illegible] as good as new. We are informed by her gentlemanly officers that she will take her place on the route between this city and Vancouver to-day.

TAX SALE.—Delinquents will bear in mind [illegible] property for the county taxes will be sold [illegible] o'clock this morning, at the Court[illegible] in this city. Property for city taxes will be sold at the City Recorder's office at the same hour. This is the last opportunity for delinquents to settle up.

MARTIN, THE WIZARD.—Martin, the great Magician, is in town. He performs at Van[illegible] on Tuesday evening next. He will [illegible] in this city during the latter part of [illegible] week. Our citizens well remember his [illegible] and pleasing feats in legerdemain [illegible] occasion, and therefore cannot fail to attend when he performs again.

LEAVES TO-DAY.—The next ocean steamer for this port will leave San Francisco direct to-day (Monday.)

U. S. DISTRICT COURT.—The September term of this Court commences its session this [illegible], Judge Deady presiding.

AMUSEMENTS.—The Willamette was filled again on Saturday night. The performance [illegible] good. Miss Lotta was received with usual applause, in all the parts she [illegible]. She has no equal. Frank Hussey and Jake Wallace put life and fun in every [illegible]. They understand how to please an [illegible]. Frank's eccentricities and Jake's [illegible] are seldom equalled. They play again to-night, when something new and funny will be served, and on which occasion the pleasing Miss Lotta takes a benefit.

Vanison's Opera House is always full. The music is excellent. Miss Lawrence still [illegible] the audience with her charming songs. Mat Irwin and Johnny Collins opened up their budgets of fun, and like the widow's [illegible] of oil, it appeared as though they would never get empty. Many a side got sore with their mirth and humor. We would suggest to the proprietor the idea of having a "sounding board" put up above the stage. The singing and music would be much improved, we think, by so doing.

Just Arrived!—MR. HENDEE has arrived from San Francisco with a new assortment of Frames and Cases, and is now prepared to take CARD PICTURES and other PHOTOGRAPHS in all the latest approved styles, and at San Francisco Prices. He has made improvements in his Light and Rooms, and will warrant all his work.

LADD, WEBSTER & CO'S
FAMILY
SEWING MACHINES
ARE UNEQUALLED BY ANY FOR BEAUTY AND SIMPLICITY OF CONSTRUCTION
—AND—
Efficiency in Working.

A GOOD SEWING MACHINE SHOULD BE WELL MADE, simple in its construction, and easily kept in order, should make a tight lockstitch, alike on both sides of the Material, and should sew any and all materials that can be sewed.

It should be able to use cotton, thread, or silk directly from the spool, and to sew from coarse to fine, and from thick to thin, with rapidity, and without changing the tension. It should also be able to make the tension greater or less, on both the under and upper threads and with uniformity; and should have a straight needle, placed so as not liable to break.

The needle should have perpendicular motion—this is absolutely necessary for heavy work.

It should be able to bind with a binder, hem with a hemmer; should stitch, fell, run and gather; and should be always ready to work.

It should be capable of using the same size thread on both sides of the work, and of using different colored thread or silk above or below to correspond with any [illegible] cloth to be united.

It should be able to make a long or short stitch, and to fasten off the seam and commence sewing tightly at the first stitch, and to run easily, and make but little noise.

It should have a wheel feed; no others are in constant contact with the work.

It should not be liable to get out of order; neither should it require a screw driver or wrench to set the needle.

It should not be liable to oil the operator's dress.

It should not form a ridge on the under side, or ravel.

The undersigned are General Agents for the general supervision of these unrivalled machines for Pacific States and Western Coast of Mexico.

DR. BAKER'S PAIN PANACEA.

It is composed entirely of healing gums, and vegetable oil and herbs. It is perfectly safe for the most delicate to use. I can most sincerely say that I have never known any, however delicate, to be injured by it in the least. I will continue to ask the afflicted, who have not used it, to try it for the following diseases. If they are not satisfied with its healing properties the money will be cheerfully refunded by the agent where the medicine is for sale.

If you have pain in the stomach or bowels, try a dose of Pain Panacea internally, bathe externally over the parts affected, and it will at once restore the proper action and relieve the pain.

If you have a Bruise or Wound, bathe it well with the Pain Panacea four times a day. It will relieve the pain, and take out all the poison, and heal the wound in a short time.

If you are suffering from Neuralgia or Rheumatic Pains, apply the Pain Panacea freely, and take a dose of it internally, morning, noon and night. It will not only cure the pain, but will remove the cause of the disease.

If you have the Dyspepsia, and your food distresses your stomach after eating, take a dose of Pain Panacea after each meal.

If you have a Cankered or Sore Mouth or Throat, apply the Pain Panacea to the affected parts, and gargle the mouth or throat three or four times a day.

If you have the Diarrhœa, or a relaxed state of the bowels, take a dose of Pain Panacea, and they will soon be restored. If you have a [illegible] swelling, bathe the parts freely and you will soon relieve pain, and the swelling will be reduced.

If you have a severe toothache, apply the Pain Panacea on a piece of cotton and bathe gum at the same time; it will stop the pain instantly.

If you have a pain in the Breast, Side, Back or Kidneys, bathe the parts affected morning and night at the same time take a dose of the Panacea internally.

If a Mother has a caked breast, apply the Panacea as hot as it can be borne.

If you feel chilly or cold, as though you were going to have a fever, take a dose of Panacea.

If you have a wound, cut or galls upon your horse, apply the Pain Panacea; it will draw out all the inflammation and heal the sore in a short time.

BRAN, SHORTS and MIDDLINGS,
For sale by H. LAW

A Soldier's First Battle.

(Concluded.)

In a minute or two the gun was surrounded by my comrades, and then nine hearty cheers rent the air.

"Bravely done, my gallant fellows!" said the voice of our commander, "the battery is ours, but alas! with the loss of some of the noblest spirits that ever went into battle. Let them be carried back—some of them may yet be saved. Poor Brandon! I shall never forget him. The first upon the enemy, he fought with a valor seldom equalled. With his horse shot from under him, he engaged in a hand-to-hand encounter, and slew three desperate fellows before he was overpowered. Ah! my heart swells with pride at the thought that I command such men!—let the memory of the dead be honored."

Good heavens! was he in earnest or in jest? I anxiously listened for the laugh, but none came. Could it be possible that he had mistaken me for a hero? me! who had blundered through all I had done, and got out of the way at the earliest possible moment. No, no—already I was doubtless the butt of my captain and comrades!

"Ah! here he is! here is Brandon!" exclaimed two or three voices, and immediately a dozen hands assisted me out from under the cannon, and congratulations poured in upon me till I was more completely bewildered than while I was unconsciously acting the part of a daring hero.

Such then was my first glorious exploit, with the exact amount of credit that ought to attach to it, but which I think I will keep to myself, notwithstanding I have recorded it in my journal. What business has the critical public with motives? Facts have made me a hero in spite of myself, and let the facts stand as others have recorded them.

In a few minutes another order called my corps away to another charge, but I, not being mounted, could not accompany them.—So I started off afoot toward that part of the field whither I perceived some men carrying the wounded. Before I got half way there, one of the enemy's horses came prancing down toward me, and with a sudden spring I caught it. Having mounted, I was riding away as fast as I could, when a body of cavalry came thundering along, with the bugles sounding a charge. I would have given these foemen a wide berth, but unfortunately my confounded fool of a horse would not let me. Taking the bit in his teeth, he rushed directly in among them; and I, being a good deal excited and confused, thought I was now obliged to fight, whether I would or not. Had it occurred to me that I could surrender myself a prisoner of war, I should unquestionably have done so at once; but instead of this, I began to lay about me, right and left, with no particular design in view, except it might be to get away as quick as I could. Surely they must have thought me either a madman or a fool, to contend single handed against such odds, and they treated me accordingly.—Sabres flashed, blows fell, and soon, with a broken arm and a broken head, I dropped from my horse, to have the little sense I possessed trampled out of me on the ground.

Now, seriously, this is all I personally know of a battle in which it is said I distinguished, if not immortalized, myself by prodigies of valor; for the next I remember is of finding myself among the wounded, under the care of our surgeon, who informed me that the enemy had been defeated, and we had won a great victory. He further said that my name was in every body's mouth, from the General down; and though a few of the more prudent were disposed to censure my rashness, yet all concurred in pronouncing me a hero of the palmiest days of Sparta.

Though excessively pale from the loss of blood, I know that some must have found its way to my cheeks as I humbly confessed that my last Quixotic charge was all the work of an unmanageable horse; but to my surprise the doctor affected not to believe me, and declared that true merit was always modest.—After that I told others the same truthful story, with the same result; but now I do not repeat it any more—finding it a very pleasant thing to be a distinguished hero with a somewhat lucrative promotion as my reward.

The only thing that troubles me now, aside from my honorable wounds and bruises, is the mental query, whether, in a case I should ever venture into battle again, I should so happily blunder through the second as the first, and ever find another vicious, headstrong beast to bear me on to glory in spite of myself.

The New Postage Stamp Currency.—Eastern intelligence says that the designs for the postage stamps to be used as currency have been adopted, and were at last advices in the hands of the engraver. They are to be of four denominations, viz.: Five, ten, twenty-five and fifty cents. They will all be printed on the same paper that the Treasury notes are printed on, and were to be ready for delivery in ten or twelve days.

The five cent will be two and five-eighths inches long and one inch and three-quarters wide—color brown. On the upper corners will be the denomination, in white figures on a dark ground. In the centre, occupying the position of a vignette, will be the five cent postage stamp, with a figure "5" in geometrical lathe work on each side.

The twenty-fives will be the same as the above, except that the vignette will be five 5-cent stamps overlapping each other, and the bill be three inches long.

The ten cent will be the same length and breadth as the five—color green. The ten cent stamp will form the vignette, with "10" on each side, the same as on the five cent bill; and in all other respects it will be the same.

The fifties will be more in conformity with the tens, and the vignette will be five ten cent stamps overlapping.

Over the designs, as above described, will be the words "Postage stamps furnished by the Assistant Treasurers and designated Depositaries of the United States," and under "Receivable for postage stamps at any post-office." In the middle of the lower part of the notes will be "U. S." in large letters. Large figures (in lathe work) denoting the denomination will be in the centre of the back of each "stamp" or "note," surrounded by the words "Exchangeable for United States notes by any Assistant Treasurer or designated United States Depositary, in sums not less than $5. Receivable in payment of all dues to the United States less than $5. Act approved July 17, 1862." The notes will be executed in the highest style of the art and every possible precaution will be taken to prevent counterfeiting.

Non-Resident Notice.

Circuit Court of the State of Oregon, for the County of Multnomah, at the November Term thereof, A. D. 1862.

S. Sherlock, W. Sherlock and C. P. Burdin, partners in trade under the firm name and style of S. Sherlock & Co., Plaintiffs, vs A. J. Cain, Defendant.

IT HAVING BEEN MADE TO APPEAR TO THE SATISFACTION of the Judge of said Court that you, the said A. J. Cain, are not a resident of the State of Oregon, and cannot be found in said State, after due and diligent search, and that you have property in said State, and that said Court has jurisdiction of the subject of the above entitled action, and that service of summons cannot be made on you, and that a cause of action in the suit above entitled exists, [illegible], it was ordered that service be made on [illegible] by publication of notice to you, the said A. J. Cain. Now the said defendant, A. J. Cain, is hereby notified that the said plaintiffs have filed their complaint against you, the said defendant, in said Court, claiming to recover against you the sum of $184 20 and interest thereon at 10 per cent. per annum, from the 1st day of April, A. D. 1861, for a balance due them for goods, wares and merchandize sold and by them delivered to you. And also that an affidavit for an attachment against your goods and chattels, lands and tenements and a writ of attachment was duly issued and levied upon your property.

Now, unless you, the said A. J. Cain, shall and do appear in the Circuit Court of the State of Oregon, for Multnomah county, on the second Monday in November, A. D. 1862, and answer the plaintiffs' complaint filed herein, the same will be taken for confessed, and the prayer thereof will be granted by the Court.

In testimony whereof I have hereunto set my hand and affixed the seal of said Court this, the 8th day of August, A. D. 1862.

DR. L. J. CZAPKAY'S

Private Medical & Surgical Institute,

SACRAMENTO STREET, BELOW MONTGOMERY,

Opposite Pacific Mail Steamship Company's Office, San Francisco.

ESTABLISHED IN 1854 FOR THE PERMANENT cure of all Chronic and Private Diseases, and the SUPPRESSION OF QUACKERY. Attending and Resident Physician, L. J. CZAPKAY, M. D., late in the Hungarian Revolutionary War, Chief Physician to the 20th Regiment of Honveds, Chief Surgeon to the Military Hospital of Pesth, Hungary; the late Lecturer on Diseases of the Urinary Organs and Diseases of Women and Children, and Honorary Member of the Philadelphia College of Medicine.

☞ Particular attention paid to the treatment of diseases peculiar to Women and Children.

Office Hours—From 9 A. M. to 9 P. M.

☞ Communications strictly confidential. Permanent cure guaranteed or no pay. Consultations by letter or otherwise FREE.

Address, DR. L. J. CZAPKAY, San Francisco.

Of all diseases the first great cause

Springs from neglect of Nature's laws.

To the Afflicted!

Suffer not when a cure is guaranteed in all stages of secret diseases—Self Abuse, Nervous Debility, Syphilis in all its stages, Strictures, Gleet, Gravel, Diabetes, diseases of the Kidneys and Bladder, Mercurial Rheumatism, Scrofula, Pains in the Bones and Ankles, diseases of the Lungs, Throat, Nose and Eyes, Ulcers upon the Body or Limbs, Cancers, Dropsy, Epileptic Fits, St. Vitus Dance—and all diseases arising from a derangement of the sexual organs—such as Nervous Trembling, Loss of Memory, Loss of Power, General Weakness, Dimness of Vision with peculiar spots appearing before the eyes, Loss of Sight, Wakefulness, Dyspepsia, Liver Disease, Eruptions upon the Face, Pains in the Back and Head, Female Irregularities—and all improper discharges of both sexes. It matters not from what cause the disease originated, however long standing or obstinate the case, recovery is certain, and in a shorter time than a permanent cure can be effected by any other treatment, even after the disease has baffled the skill of eminent physicians and resisted all their means of cure. The medicines prescribed are pleasant, without odor, entirely vegetable, causing no sickness and free from mercury or balsam. During fifteen years of practice in Europe, the Atlantic States and California, I have rescued from the jaws of death many thousands who in the last stages of the above mentioned diseases had been given up to die by their physicians, which warrants me in promising to the afflicted, who may place themselves under my care, a speedy and permanent cure. Private diseases are the greatest enemies to health, as they are the first cause of consumption, scrofula, and many other diseases, and should be a terror to the human family. A permanent cure is scarcely ever effected—a majority of cases falling into the hands of incompetent persons who not only fail to cure the disease, but ruin the constitution, filling the system with mercury, which, with the disease, hastens the sufferer into a rapid consumption. But should the disease and the treatment not cause death speedily, and the victim marries, the disease is entailed upon the children, who are born with feeble constitutions, and the current of life corrupted by a virus which betrays itself in scrofula, tetter, ulcers, eruptions and other affections of the skin, eyes, throat and lungs, entailing upon them a brief existence of suffering, and consigning them to an early grave.

Self-abuse is another formidable enemy to health, for nothing else in the dread catalogue of human diseases causes so destructive a drain upon the system—drawing its thousands of victims through a few years of suffering, down to an untimely grave. It destroys the nervous system, rapidly wastes away the energies of life, causes mental derangement, prevents the proper development of the system, disqualifies for marriage, society, business, and all earthly happiness, and leaves the sufferer wrecked in body and mind, predisposed to consumption and a train of evils more to be dreaded than death itself. With the fullest confidence I assure the unfortunate victims of self-abuse that a permanent and speedy cure can be effected, and with the abandonment of ruinous practices my patients can be restored to robust, vigorous health.

Irregularities and all diseases of males and females treated on principles established by fifteen years of practice, and sanctioned by thousands of the most remarkable cures.—Medicines, with full directions, sent to any part of the State of Oregon and Washington Territory by patients communicating their symptoms by letter.

All business correspondence strictly confidential. Address DR. L. J. CZAPKAY, Medical Institute, Sacramento street, below Montgomery, opposite Pacific Mail Steamship Co.'s Office, San Francisco.

Remarkable Instance of Medical Relief.

Below we publish the certificates of three of the sufferers from the pangs of disease, who having recovered their former health and impelled by gratitude, make known their case and remedial agent, and their statement are authenticated by a Notary Public. Their testimonials are very imperiously commanding their publicity, and we commend their perusal to the attention of all afflicted.

Certificate.—The undersigned, desirous of acquainting those who may be afflicted similarly to himself, where a permanent relief for their sufferings may be obtained, feels it his duty to thus publicly express his most sincere gratitude to Dr. L. J. Czapkay, for the permanent recovery of his health. Borne down by the distressing symptoms incident to the vicious practices of uncontrollable passion in youth, depressed in body and mind, unable to perform even the most trifling duty imposed upon the ordinary avocations of life, I sought the advice of many physicians, who at first regarded my disease as of trifling importance; but alas, after a few weeks, and in several instances months, of their treatment, I found to my unutterable horror that instead of relief my symptoms became more alarming, in their character, and being told by one that my disease being principally confined to the brain, medicine would be of little consequence. I despaired of ever regaining my health, strength and energy, and as a last resort and with but a faint hope, called upon Dr. Czapkay, who, after examining my case, prescribed some medicine which almost instantly relieved me of the dull pain and dizziness in my head. Encouraged by the result, I resolved to follow most implicitly his direction and advice [illegible] ideas [illegible] the constant pain in my back and the weakness of my limbs [illegible] nervous [illegible] body on the slightest commotion or excitement, the unsociable [illegible] feelings that I distrust and want of [illegible] to fathom the inability to study and want of resolution, the frightful exciting dreams at times pleasant [illegible] dreams at night, followed by involuntary discharges, have all disappeared, and in fact, I now [illegible] the doctor [illegible] inspired by a new life—a state which but a short time ago I contemplated to end by my own hand. With the view to guard the unfortunate from falling into the snares of incompetent parties, I feel it my duty to offer this testimony to the merit and skill of Dr. Czapkay, and recommend him to all who may stand in need of medical advice, being assured by my own experience that a cure under his care will be effected.

MARYSVILLE, [illegible]

Dr. L. J. CZAPKAY, San Francisco—Sir: I have not the last of your medicine, and I am glad to tell you that I feel as if I am now perfectly well, except that I have not entirely got my strength, but soon will with the appetite I have. It is just three weeks since I called at your institute, with my constitution, as I thought, broken entirely, and never thought you would be able to do me so perfectly thoroughly as you did. I am able to do something to restore the pains in my back and head and strengthen my nerves. [illegible] Now that [illegible] I [illegible] completely from those [illegible] sores and blotches from my skin and the [illegible] in my throat and the entire stoppage of the [illegible] which this [illegible] the [illegible] greatest joy. [illegible] having fully [illegible] as well as any man can feel.

[illegible] twenty dollars over your charge, and [illegible] If you think anybody will be [illegible] publish this letter in the newspapers. Respectfully yours, THOMAS HAYDEN.

Thankfulness is the Incentive to gratitude.

CERTIFICATE.—Prompted by an honest desire of my heart, I wish to lay before the public a case which deserves commendation, not only as an act of scientific skill, but that of humanity also. About two years ago I suddenly and from causes unknown to me, was seized with a fit of epilepsy, which, owing to my inability to meet the expenses consequent upon a thorough medical treatment, and the discouragement with which I met with on attempting it, soon became such that I was not able to [illegible] the skill of any physician. I was frequently while in pursuit of my calling, thrown down to the ground without the slightest warning; and although his notice to the agonies, I [illegible] despised the [illegible] and soon learned to look upon those who would [illegible] me from danger as enemies who sought to prolong the existence of my miseries. What in this state and having [illegible] to my affliction, [illegible] the sweets of life I once more was induced to attempt seeking aid of a physician, and by recommendation called upon Dr. L. J. Czapkay. I told him of my circumstances, and of my inability to reward him for his services, regardless of which, however, he at once undertook my case, and with the blessing of God I was once more restored to perfect health. Unable to reward him for the boon which I enjoy at present, and yet conscious of my indebtedness, I consider it due to myself and all afflicted to make the case public, in order that those in need of medical advice may find a physician in whom every confidence can be placed.
